RACHANA BIHAR, SUGAULI (BIHAR)

16 Aim & Objective

RACHANA BIHAR is a voluntary Organization working for the Cultural, Economic, Educational, Social and women's empowerment in the underprivileged communities, especially with children and women.

17 History

RACHANA BIHAR was initiated with a view to evolving information and making linkage between the villagers and the government. We believed that knowledge would lead to awareness, which would further lead to self-development, empowerment and action.

We have come a long way following a small beginning in April 1995, and have implemented a wide variety of projects related to child rights for change, reproductive child health care, quality education, watershed development, wasteland development, tribal development, low cost sanitation, alternate energy sources, self-help groups, vocational training to youth, and women empowerment in East Champaran and west Champaran Districts of Bihar state in India. While implementing different developmental projects, our thrust has always been on working through people's participation. At RACHANA BIHAR, we have always believed in the capacities and capabilities of the communities, and have always strived to channel their hidden energies for the betterment of society at large. Our efforts have always been directed towards creating an environment that is conducive of enhancing opportunities to local people to think and act positively. We have always endeavored to develop skills and competencies of the local communities with a view to enabling them to operate and maintain the assets created through the implementation of the projects on sustainable basis. This philosophy of ours has led us to adopt a holistic and participatory approach to rural development. We believe in inclusive approach, covering all the sections of the society, particularly the underprivileged, in a village. We work with the existing village level fora (and creating new ones wherever necessary) through Participatory rural.
